Charges of Conduct Unbeco an Officer Are Filed Against Wearer of a Star.

LAWYER IS COMPLAMANT.

Killian Is Alleged to Have Acted as "Go-Between" for Woman -Detective Denies Everything.

Detective Robert Lee Killian has been suspended by Chief Dusmend, pending charges which have been filed against him by Attorney William B. Pen of No. 34 South Twelrth street. Killian will be sent before the Police Board to answer charges of conduct unbecoming an officer. Chief Desmond will file the charges with the board to-day.

According to the charges, Killian is said to have assured Lawyer Fish that he would receive a fee of 25 for defunding Mand Williams, a woman who lives in the neighborhood of Eleventh and Market streets. The Williams woman employed Lawyer Fish to represent her in court, and it is out of that procedure that the charges come.

The action of Chief Desmond in suspending Killian was taken last night after a lengthy conference with Chief of Police Kiely, during which the matter was discussed.

Detective Killian was appointed to the police force when he was only 35 years old. He entered the service April E. 186. His first promotion came eight months later, December 2, 186, when he was made a untrolman. His grounding to the rank of detective came within four months.

Killian is a nephew of James Banneeman, former Police Commissioner. He was detailed by Desmond several mouths ago to so to London. England, for Charles F. McIntyre, who is now serving a term in the Missouri Penitentiary for his connection with "set-rich-quick" schemes.

Detective Killian ways he is prepared to answer the charges, and will be gied to have the opportunity to "show them up" at an open meeting of the board.

JUROR SICK, BUT TRIAL IS NOT INTERRUPTED.

Eleven Men Pass Upon Case Agai Alpa and Render Verdict for $2,500.

Although compelled to try a suit for Bruno Frankel against the Tyrolean Alpa with one of their number missing, owing to a message from his business firm that he had been acting too strangely to permit of being allowed to attend a court, a jury of eleven handed down a verdict in Judge Kinsey's court yesterday which was satisfactory to both sides.

The verdict was for $2,500 against the Alps.

Brownsville Road to Bridge the Rio Grande, a New Route From St. Louis to Mexico City.

REFUBLIC SPECIAL

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

San Antonia, Tex., Dec. 21.—Civil engineers of the Yoakum lines are locating a bridge across the Rio Grande at Reversaville, Tex., to connect the St. Louis, Brownsville and Mexico Raiway, which is known as the Gulf Coast road, with the National Lines of Mexico. Trackage arrangements will be entered into whereby the Brownsville Route, by track.

Age arrangements at Galveston and House, age arrangements at Galveston and House, will have a short line from St. Louis to the City of Mexico.

The immediate plan is to connect the Brownsville Route with the National Lines of Mexico (city via Monterey, But the prospective plan is for the National Lines of Mexico, with the object of reducing the distance between St. Louis and Mexico City about 26 miles Jeff N. Miller, vice president of the Brownsville Route and representative of B. F. Yoakum, announced to-day that trackage arrangements will soon be made between his road and the National Lines of Mexico City. This agreement will make Brownsville a new and important Texas-Mexican gateway.

Mr. Toakum is president of the Brownsville Route. The road is owned by capitalists of St. Louis and New York, but principally of St. Louis financiers who are interested materially in the project, recently made a tour of inspection over the property.

The Brownsville Route is practically compieted from Brownsville and Fordyce, on the Rio Grande, northwardly to Bay City. The Brownsville Route is structed about midway between Galveston and Houston to Algoa. The road parallels the coast of the Guif of Mexico from Galveston to Brownsville.

LIST OF SECURITIES ON WHICH HARMON WILL PAY.

Although compelled to try a sult for Bruno Frankel aguinst the Tyrolean Alpa with one of their number missing, owing to a message from his business firm that he had been acting too strangely to permit of being allowed to attend a court, a jury of eleven handed down a verdict in Judge Kinsey's court yesterday which was satisfactory to both sides.

The verdict was for 2,300 against the Alps.

The missing juror was Bernard Meter, who failed to appear for service in the case. He lives at No. 231 Montgomery street and is vice president of the Central Furniture Company. When he did not appear as the case was called, John C. Beopple, the courtroom Deputy Sheriff, telephoned to his firm and asked for as explanation.

The reply came that Mr. Meter had been sent to his home and that he appeared to be temporarily deranged. The case was thereugen called with eleven jurors, and the verdict for the plaintiff was handed down.

Frankel is a photographer and claimed that he was to have had the exclusive privilege of making pictures in the Alps throughout the Fair. He alleged that another man was permitted to make silhouettes there, thus violating the contract with him.
